Energizing Democracy

Tuesday, July 28 at 7:00 pm Eastern / 6:00 pm Central

by Michael Malcom

In a recent sermon, Rev Jennifer Sanders of Beloved UCC preached about things rising from the ashes. Although these are tense and uncertain times, many of us are either raising or finding our voice for justice. Some of us have even seen justice ministry emerge from the ashes. We are taking stances against "othering" and stating emphatically that black lives matter.

I commend those who have seen placing your bodies on the line as a sacred rite. I'd like to invite you all to view injustice through an environmental justice lens. Join us on July 28 at 7 pm Eastern/6 pm Central as we discuss environmental racism and its effect on the church. Register today for Energizing Democracy

Tuesdays for Nurture: No Justice No Peace Rally

The United Church of Christ actively believes that youth and young adults are vital to the church and society and to that end, we are dedicated to creating leadership development opportunities, resources, events and programs for those from ranging from sixth grade through their mid-30s. Youth and young adults within the United Church of Christ will be gathering virtually with special guests to host a 75-minute rally around the topic of Race Relations & Justice as a starting place for future engagement and leadership development opportunities.

We have been hearing from our young people who have said this is a priority.

They are interested in dialogue with each other across racial barriers and leaders about their experience(s), steps to create a just world for all and addressing the unrest we see around racism, the abuse of power by some uniformed officers and the helplessness many are feeling regardless of age, race or gender. This rally will be geared to hearing from people of color to but it is important that our white allies of all ages be present to hear as well. Members of the Faith INFO team will be planning a second webinar that will feature white youth and young adults on July 30th.

For more information please reach out to Rev. Trayce Potter, Minister for Youth & Young Adult Engagement at pottert@ucc.org. Closed Captioning will be provided. REGISTER
